The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 2. to Saturday June 6. 1713

Kenſington, June 5.

THE following Addreſs from the County of Northampton, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Cartwright, Eſq; one of the Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Peterborow, their Lord Lieutenant, accompanied by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Cardigan, Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County, Sir Gilbert Dolben, Bart. and ſeveral other Gentlemen.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Northampton.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, having received ſuch Royal Favours from the Throne, during the whole Courſe of Your Majeſty's Reign, we cannot, without the higheſt Ingratitude, remain ſilent, but muſt beg leave to expreſs the true Senſe we have of them; the utmoſt Acknowledgments which Subjects can pay, are due to Your Majeſty; and we have at the ſame time the greateſt occaſions of Congratulating with our Sovereign.

During a long War, Your Majeſty's Arms have had almoſt continual Succeſs: Our Wealth was never demanded or deſigned by Your Majeſty, but towards the Security, the Happineſs of Your People, and the Protection of Your Allies: And as ſuch prodigious Sums were never given before to any of our Monarchs, ſo never were they ſo entirely given up by any Prince to the publick Service.

If we have not ſooner enjoy'd the Benefits and Happineſs of Peace, it is well known to whoſe Endeavours are owing the delay of that common Good, now obtained by Your Majeſty's Authority, in ſpite of the greateſt and moſt artful Oppoſition.

Such Offers of Peace diſappointed, a War carried on in ſuch Methods, which (in conſequence of the greateſt Victories) gave no proſpect of Peace; ſuch Debts contracted by a moſt injudicious Management; ſuch unequal Burthens laid upon Your Subjects; ſuch volantary Efforts on the Part of England, not ſupported by others, when generally all the Confederates were avoiding and ſaving themſelves from their firſt Engagements: Theſe were ſufficient Motives to engage Your Majeſty, with Your uſual Sincerity, to advertiſe all concerned, that the War muſt be carried on by vigorous and equal Efforts, or that a Peace muſt be procured on the beſt Terms could be obtained.

The firſt not ſucceeding according to Your Majeſty's juſt Deſires, we moſt heartily Congratulate the Succeſs of the laſt beyond all Expectation. The Peace given by Your Majeſty in a manner to all Europe, ſhews Your Influence when You are pleaſed to exert it: And we depend upon it to continue in the moſt advantageous manner to Your Subjects, ſince thoſe who might become Your Enemies by paſt Experience may know, with what Zeal we ſhall always be ready to ſupport Your Majeſty, when any juſt Occaſion offers, with our Lives or Fortunes.

We moſt heartily pray for Your Majeſty's Life, which ſecures our preſent Peace and Happineſs; and as we acknowledge Your Majeſty's preſent Conduct with moſt grateful Hearts, ſo thoſe that follow us will bleſs Your prudent Cares for our Poſterity, to whom Your Wiſdom will have ſecured the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

The following Addreſs from the Borough Burrow-bridge, in the County of York, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Craven Peyton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Burrow-bridge, in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects, beg leave to join in the general Congratulations upon Your Majeſty's bringing the late bloody and expenſive War to this happy Concluſion, crowning Your many ſignal Victories with the Bleſſings of a juſt and glorious Peace: For this we preſume to render Your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks, as well as for that additional Demonſtration of Your Majeſty's extenſive Affection to Your People, in Your Care and Concern for ſecuring to Poſterity, the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

The many Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's mild Government and happy Adminiſtration, leaves us nothing more to pray for than, that GOD may protect and preſerve Your ſacred Perſon, giving You a long and peaceable Reign over us.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Beverly, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled the 23d of May.

MADAM!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, being infinitely ſenſible of the Bleſſings of Peace, do think it our Duty at this Time, among the reſt of Your Loyal Subjects, to give Your Majeſty the Tribute of our moſt grateful Acknowledgments for Your tranſcendent Care, in the preſervation of the Ballance of Power in Europe by this Your Majeſty's Peace: And alſo for the great Concern You have always expreſſed for the legally Eſtabliſhed Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

May

May Your Majeſty continue to Sheild our Government in Church and State (which we thankfully eſteem the beſt Conſtitution in the Univerſe) againſt all its Enemies: And may we by our conſtant Loyalty, live worthy of that Happineſs which always flows from ſo ſerene a Government.

And as Your Majeſty's Reign has hitherto been eminently Glorious, may it alſo be long and proſperous, is the ſincere Prayer of, Madam, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Hedon, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Pulteney and Hugh Cholmley, Eſqrs, their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by Mr. Vice Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN'S moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs, and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's moſt antient and loyal Corporation of Hedon, in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AS we have had frequent Occaſions to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon Your Succeſſes, during the glorious Courſe of this War; ſo now we beg leave, with Hearts full of the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude, to return our moſt ſincere Thanks and humble Acknowledgments to Your Majeſty, for the happy determination of it in a ſafe, honourable and advantageous Peace, whereby ſuch ineſtimable Bleſſings are not only procured for the preſent Age, but likewiſe intail'd to our Poſterity, that after-Ages, as well as we, ſhall have reaſon to bleſs Your Memory.

Whatever might have been the Deſign of thoſe, who were the Contrivers of the Obſtruction, endeavoured to be given to this great Work, they have (GOD be thanked) not only failed of their Succeſs, but likewiſe tended to increaſe Your Majeſty's Glory in ſurmounting them.

The great Care Your Majeſty has taken to ſecure the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſhed, in the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and the perfect Friendſhip there is between Your Majeſty and that Houſe, are undeniable Inſtances of the tender regard You have for the Religion, Liberties and Properties of Your People.

That Your Majeſty may add to the Bleſſings of Peace, by living long to enjoy the happy Fruits of it, are the ſincere and hearty Prayers of, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Ilcheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir James Bateman, Kt. and Edward Phillips, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerſet.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's loyal Borough of Ilcheſter, in Your County of Somerſet, humbly beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty on the happy Succeſs of thoſe important Negotiations of Peace, which Your Tenderneſs to Your People and Compaſſion to the reſt of Europe, have engaged Your Majeſty ſo ſteddily to purſue.

As Your Majeſty have been graciouſly pleas'd by this Glorious and Advantageous Peace, to obtain and ſecure for Your People all they could wiſh from abroad, to extricate us from thoſe fatal Meaſures the Ambition and Avarice of particular Perſons had engaged us in, and give us the proſpect of an Eſtabliſhment in a Proteſtant Succeſſion when Your own Glory ſhall be compleated: There remains nothing for us but to advance in our Stations Your Majeſty's gracious and glorious Undertakings, to oppoſe and diſcountenance all factious and ſeditious Oppoſers (if they yet dare ſhew their impotent, baffled, Party-Rage) and moſt fervently pray for the continuance of Your Majeſty's moſt precious Life, and auſpicious Government.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Sudbury, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by Lieutenant-General Ecklin and John Mead, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk.

Dread Sovereign,

AS during the Courſe of Your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign, Divine Providence has given us frequent Occaſions by Addreſſing Your Majeſty, to expreſs our joyful Senſe of the many Victories Your Majeſty's Arms have obtained over Your Enemies; ſo we cannot but return our ſincereſt Thanks and Praiſe to Heaven, for the Opportunity we now have of Congratulating Your Majeſty on this laſt and greateſt of Victories, your overcoming that violent and long Oppoſition which has been ſo artfully made and carried on againſt the Peace Your Majeſty has obtained for your People: Your late Gracious Speech from the Throne has fully ſatisfied all your Subjects (who deſerve the Protection of Your Government) of Your Majeſty's moſt tender Care and unwearied Endeavours for their Good and Happineſs. And as Almighty GOD, the GOD of Peace, hath Inſpired Your Majeſty and Your Miniſtry with ſuch Council, Conduct and Reſolutions as have enabled You (whoſe undoubted Right and Prerogative it is) to crown this Glorious Work: May Your Majeſty long live to ſee the Fruits thereof and Your Kingdoms flouriſh under Your moſt Gracious and Provident Adminiſtration, a Bleſſing than which nothing can be greater to us upon Earth, nothing more effect the Happineſs of our Eſtabliſh'd Church, or more endear Your Memory to Poſterity.

The following Addreſs from the Town and Port of Dover, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by Matthew Aylmer and Philip Papillion, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Dorſet and Middleſex, Conſtable of Dover Caſtle, and Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Gentlemen, Common-Council, and Freemen of the Town and Port of Dover.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

'TIS with the greateſt Duty and Satisfaction we preſume to approach Your Royal Preſence, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Cloſe of a tedious War, and the joyful Proclamation of a Peace we humbly bly hope will prove both lasting and beneficial to Your Subjects and Your Allies.

Be pleased therefore to accept of our most unfeigned Gratitude to Your Majesty, for Your great Goodness to, and Care of, Your own Dominions, and all the neighbouring Parts of Europe, by putting a stop to that Effusion of Blood and Treasure, which so long a Series of War has occasion'd.

Now that Your Majesty may enjoy all the blessed Effects of so good a Work, we shall always endeavour to promote that Unanimity among our Fellow-Subjects, as may render Your Majesty's Reign secure and happy. And when ever we shall be deprived of that inestimable Blessing of Your Life (which GOD prolong) may that Earthly Diadem which now encircles Your Royal Head, descend upon a Protestant Successor in the most Illustrious House of Hanover, and Your Majesty be Crowned with everlasting Peace and Glory in Heaven.

These, Madam, are the repeated Prayers of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Penryn, was Presented to Her Majesty by James Vernon, Senior, Esq; their Recorder.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, after our frequent Congratulations for the many Glorious Successes which attended Your Majesty's Forces, and those of Your Allies, during the Course of the late just and necessary War, crave Leave now most heartily to acknowledge Your Majesty's Compassion and Care of Your People, in concluding a Peace; and Your unparallel'd Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms of it, both before and since it was concluded.

But Your Majesty's great Goodness, in securing the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, and maintaining a perfect Friendship with that Princely Family, overwhelms us with Joy and Gratitude.

May the GOD of Peace grant Your Majesty a long, peaceful, and happy Reign over a Faithful and Obedient People: And when Your Majesty shall exchange Your Temporal for an Eternal Crown, may Your Realms descend, according to our happy Acts of Settlement: And may that Divine Providence, which, in many Ages, hath so miraculously preserved this Church and Nation, disappoint the Devices of all those Enemies to their Country, who desire a Popish Successor, or have any Designs against You our most Gracious Sovereign, or our most incomparable Establish'd Church, or to Oppose the legal Protestant Succession.

The following Address from the Borough of Tamworth, was Presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Serjeant Girdler and Samuel Bracebridge, Esqrs, their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Weymouth, their High-Steward.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Steward, Bailiffs, Recorder, Town-Clerk, Capital Burgesses, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Warwick and Stafford.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

THE Success of Your Arms, and Prudence of Your Government, have been the repeated Subject of our publick Congratulations, as Your firm Affection for the Church of England, and Concern for Your People have been the never-failing Springs of our secret Satisfaction; We are made compleatly Sensible of the former, by the effectual Care You have taken to secure the Interest and Friendship of the Illustrious House of Hanover, and the many Difficulties You have surmounted in concluding an Honourable Peace, give us a fresh Conviction of the latter.

Were Peace at any time unwelcome, surely it cannot be so now, when procured by the Fatigues of a tedious, tho' triumphant, War, when purchased by the Profusion of so much Treasure, and the Sacrifice of so many brave Mens Lives; when recommended by a QUEEN who discerns the Interests, as well as Reigns in the Affections of Her Subjects, whose unexampled Generosity in carrying on the Common Cause was such, that had it been followed by those, whose Rights were more nearly concerned, they might probably have rendered their own Terms more easie, or at least have put a speedier Period to the War.

Go on, Great Princess, by Your Pious Example and steddy Care for the Concerns of Religion, and the tender Regard for the Welfare of Your People, to procure GOD's Favour upon both; and we doubt not but to see Your Nation repeopled, without increasing the Poor by Courting Vagabonds; Trade to flow in a more extensive Channel than ever, and the Riches, Plenty, and Prosperity of Your Kingdoms arise to a more exalted Pitch, than in the Times of any the most Glorious of Your Predecessors.

The following Address from the Corporation of Ponterfact, was presented to Her Majesty by Robert Franck, Recorder, Esq; accompanied by the Lord Downe and Sir Arthur Kaye, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Marquis of Carmarthen.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's antient and loyal Borough and Corporation of Ponterfact, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg leave to return Your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for Your Princely Endeavours, and unparallel'd Goodness in obtaining for Your People so honourable a Peace, which is the greatest Glory of Your Reign, and a most inestimable Blessing to Your People: And by which You have not only obtained and secured the Quiet, Safety and Advantages of Your own People, but likewise of Your Allies, in opposition to the many Obstructions and Difficulties raised by an ungrateful Faction: And as it hath pleas'd GOD to enable Your Majesty to go thro' and compleat so great and happy a Work, by Your great Care and consummate Wisdom, we cannot but highly and justly admire the great Abilities and unwearied Application of all those whom Your Majesty was pleas'd to entrust in the Progress of the Negotiation thereof. And we do most humbly assure Your Majesty that we shall upon all occasions, ever distinguish our selves Your dutiful and loyal Subjects, in the utmost extent of our Allegiance to the best of Princes, and have a steddy Adherence to the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

The

The following Addreſs from the Borough and Soak of Doncaſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by George Bradſhaw, Eſq; their Recorder, accompanied by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Downe, Sir Arthur Kaye, Bart. Knights of the Shire, and Brian Coke, Eſq; with ſeveral other Gentlemen of the County of York; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Marquis of Carmarthen.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and of the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough and Soak of Doncaſter, in the County York.

PERMIT us (moſt Gracious Sovereign) among the reſt of Your loyal Subjects, who daily croud Your Royal Palace, to tender the grateful Tribute of our Allegiance, and to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the concluſion of a Peace, Advantageous, Safe, Juſt and Honourable to Your Majeſty, Your People and Your Allies.

The many artful Obſtructions contrived by an Inſolent Faction at home, and ſome ungrateful Allies abroad, to oppoſe Your great Undertaking, have ſerved only to illuſtrate the Wiſdom and Steddineſs of Your Counſels, and to heighten Your Majeſty's Glory.

With Hearts full of Joy, we reflect upon the Aſſurance You was pleas'd to give Your Parliament of a perfect Friendſhip being maintained between Your Majeſty and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, in ſpight of all the wicked Attempts which have been made to divide You. We are fully ſatisfied that Your Majeſty, who is ſo bright an Ornament of the eſtabliſhed Church, will tranſmit that invaluable Bleſſing ſafe to Poſterity, by ſecuring a Proteſtant Succeſſion.

That Your Majeſty may long, very long live to enjoy the happy Fruits of Peace, to be ſerv'd by ſuch a vigilant and dutiful Miniſtry, and to be aſſiſted with ſuch a faithful and loyal Parliament, as at this time Your Kingdoms are bleſſed with; that all factious and ſeditious Spirits may be ſuppreſs'd, and that the Devices of thoſe falſe Friends to Great Britain who delight in War, may be confounded, are the hearty and conſtant Prayers of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal, and moſt obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Grampond in the County of Cornwall, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne and Mr. Vice Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the major Part of the Freemen, Town-Clerk, the Miniſters, and other loyal Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's antient Borough of Grampond, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

AS true and faithful Subjects, we humbly crave leave to Congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty upon Your making a Peace, which, conſidering the oppoſition it hath met with, is an Atchievement far greater than the greateſt of Your Victories.

The Terms of it are ſo glorious, and the Bleſſings that attend it ſo many, that we have only one more to pray for, which is, that the Divine Providence may long preſerve that invaluable Life of Yours, to which they are owing.

Next to the Protection of Heaven, we look upon that as our only Security againſt the Malice of an Impudent and Reſtleſs Faction, who dare ſpeak evil of Dignities, and endeavour to vilify that Miniſtry, who, under GOD and Your Majeſty, have made them happy againſt their Wills.

But notwithſtanding the wicked Suggeſtions of theſe Emiſſaries of Diſcord and Confuſion, we rejoice, we are thankful that You, Great Madam, have enlarged our Commerce, given juſt Satisfaction to Your Allies, ſecur'd the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and preſerv'd our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, the continuance of which Bleſſings are ſincerely deſired by, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt grateful and obedient Subjects.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury, Aſſembled and Sworn in Her Majeſty's Court of Queen's Bench, Eaſter Term, 1713. in the County of Dublin. And

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Biſhop, Commiſſioners, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſs of Kilmore, aſſembled at an Annual Viſitation held at Cavan the 6th of May, 1713, were preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Madrid, May 22. N. S. The Duke de Popoli ſet out from hence on the 18th, in order to take upon him the Command of the Army in Catalonia. That Province is to enjoy the ſame Rights, Privileges, and Laws as thoſe of the Two Caſtiles. Don Franciſco Portell, a Native of the Country, and a Member of the Council of State, is to have the Adminiſtration of their Civil Affairs. He deſired to be excuſed, upon account of his continual Indiſpoſition, but the King would admit of no reaſon to diſcharge him from that Employment. Monſieur Orry has had ſeveral Conferences with Count Bergeick, upon the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Finances, and it is ſaid they diſagree in ſeveral eſſential Articles. The Act by which the Houſe of Savoy is declared Heir to the Crown of Spain, in default of Iſſue of King Philip, hath been publiſh'd here in the uſual manner. The Indulto upon the Money and Merchandizes of the Flota lately arrived at Cadiz, is ſetled at Eight per Cent. to the King, beſides a fourth Part to reimburſe the Chamber of Commerce for the Charges of the Freight. Don Antonio d'Echavers is ordered to ſet ſail for Peru with the Fleet under his command, as ſoon as the Wind will permit.

Hanover, June 6. N. S. Monſieur Schleinitz, Envoy of Muſcovy, is returned from Leipſig, and Yeſterday he had an Audience of the Elector, to notifie that the Czarreſs is deliver'd of a Daughter. Afterwards he went to the Electreſs-Dowager, with a

Letter

Letter from the Czar his Maſter, in which ſhe is deſired to be Godmother to the young Princeſs; and at the ſame time he preſented her, in the Czar's Name, with a Snuff-Box wrought by his Majeſty's own Hand. Letters from Holſtein bring an Account, that the Muſcovite and Saxon Troops are upon their March towards Pomerania, and it is ſaid they deſign to attack Stralſund, or the Iſle of Rugen. The ſame Advices add, that the Ranſom of the Swediſh Priſoners amounts to One hundred and fifty thouſand Crowns, beſides which their Ordinary Expences coſt them One thouſand Crowns a Day. We hear from ſeveral Places, that the laſt Grand Vizir hath been Strangled, which the Swedes give out was for acting contrary to the Intereſt of their King; but the Confederates of the North pretend it was for endeavouring to engage the Port in a War againſt the Czar and his Allies.

Hamburgh, June 9. N. S. We have received advice from Petersburg, that on the 13th paſt, the Czar ſet Sail from thence with a Fleet of above Two hundred Ships, on board of which were Eighteen thouſand effective Men, and a large Train of Artillery: The Wind having prov'd fair for three Days together, it is not doubted that they have already reached Helſingfos a Maritime Town in Finland, where they deſign'd to make their firſt Attack, and afterwards to proceed to Abo. The Muſcovites in Holſtein began their March on the 4th Inſtant; and this Evening they are expected at Pinnenberg, where they intend to halt to Morrow. The Czar hath left Eight thouſand Foot with the King of Denmark, and is to maintain them as long as the War laſts, purſuant to the Convention made between their Majeſties. The King hath ſent for Six thouſand Men more of his own Troops from Zeland, and it is ſaid Wiſmar is to be attack'd by the Danes, and Stralſund by the Muſcovites and Saxons. The King of Denmark and King Auguſtus are obliged to provide the Artillery, and it is thought by the end of this Month, the neceſſary Preparations will be made for beginning the Siege of the former of thoſe Places. The Blockade of Tonningen is ſtill continued, and ſome Days ago an Edict was publiſhed, forbidding all Perſons from carrying Proviſions into that Fortreſs, upon pain of Death. His Daniſh Majeſty hath declared that he will reſtore the Revenues of the Biſhoprick of Eutin to the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein, notwithſtanding the Injuries he has received from the Houſe of Gottorp, by their admitting the Swedes into Tonningen.

Bruſſels, June 8. N. S. On the 4th Inſtant Ypres and Charleroy were evacuated by the French Garriſons, in purſuance of the Convention made at Orchies to that purpoſe. The Troops deſign'd to take Poſſeſſion of Luxemburg, have been ſeveral Days on their March that way, and it is expected the next Letters will bring an Account of the giving up of that Place likewiſe. The Daniſh, Wirtemberg and Saxon Troops, formerly in Dutch Pay, are now paſſing through theſe Provinces. The Danes, as is ſaid, are to return by Nimeguen into the Territories of the King their Maſter, but it is believ'd the other two Corps will ſerve on the Rhine.

Utrecht, June 13. N. S. On the 9th Inſtant Count Denhoff, firſt Plenipotentiary of the King of Pruſſia, ſet out for Berlin purſuant to Orders he had received from thence to that purpoſe. The ſame Day the Earl of Athlone's Regiment arrived here from Flanders. Monſieur Meſnager, one of the Miniſters of France, is gone to that Court, and he is to be follow'd in a ſhort time by Mareſchal d'Uxelle's, his Colleague. The Earl of Strafford is likewiſe gone from hence to the Hague.

Errat. In the Gazette of Tueſday laſt, in the Addreſs from Banbury, for Borough read Corporation.

The Paymaſter of Her Majeſty's Marine Forces hereby gives Notice, That South-Sea Stock is iſſued to anſwer the Off-reckonings of the ſix Marine Regiments, from the 25th of June, 1709, to the 24th of April, 1711; It is therefore deſired, that all Perſons that have any Demands on, or Aſſignments of the ſaid Off-reckonings, will bring in their Claims; for the Entring which, Attendance ſhall be conſtantly given at Mr. Sizer's Houſe near Charing-Croſs, from Ten in the Morning till Two in the Afternoon.

Whereas a Letter dated the 3d of this Inſtant June, Signed R. D. *directed to the Rt. Whereas the Commiſſioners of Her Majeſty's Cuſtoms have received by the Penny-Poſt an Anonymous Letter, ſigned T T F B C B, without Date, informing them of ſeveral Irregularities and Frauds committed by an Officer in one of the Out-Ports; if the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter will attend the ſaid Commiſſioners at the Cuſtom-Houſe, and make out their Information, they ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement.
